The Formula

Fifteen points are up for grabs in each age and gender specific classification. The points are awarded in reverse order to the top 15 riders. If more than 15 ride in a particular class, each rider will receive at least 1 point. Additional points (3-2-1) are awarded to the top 3 riders of each class. A rider can also add 5 points if they ride the entire series.

Translation: The better you ride, the more points you accumulate!

Overall series winners will be encouraged to race in the next higher category next year.

This year's race at Falling Creek Park offers a variety of challenges over its 5 mile course with rolling terrain and a mix of trail types.
